Designed by Roger Rulewich and opened in 2004 as one of four courses owned by the Morris County Park Commission, the Billy Casper Golf Management Company took over operations in 2013. The 18th hole is a favorite to many a golfer as it finishes at the clubhouse giving a bit of a stadium feel to it. The setting is incredible. Atop the Green Pond Mountain, the view down below to the Rockaway River and beyond is majestic. And, American history? The view from the No. 2 tee box shows down at the No. 12 hole the stone walls of what was once the elephant house when Alfred T. Ringling owned the land and brought the Ringling Brothers Circus here for the winter in the early 1900s. Some of this land, eventually found its way in becoming the Berkshire Valley Golf Course.
